

Out There - Hunchback of Notre Dame

Reading comprehension

The world is cruel
The world is ____
It's I alone whom you can trust in this ____ city
I am your only friend
I who keep you, ____ you, feed you, dress you
I who look upon you without fear
How can I protect you, boy, unless you
____ stay in here
____ in here
You are deformed (I am deformed)
And you are ugly (And I am ugly)
And these are crimes
For which the world
Shows little ____
You do not comprehend
(You are my one defender)
Out there they'll revile you
As a ____
(I am a monster)
Out there they will hate
And scorn and ____
(Only a monster)
Why invite their calumny
And consternation
Stay in here
Be faithful to me (I'm faithful)
Grateful to me (I'm grateful)
Do as I say

And stay
In here

Safe behind these windows
And these parapets of stone ____ at the people down below me
All my life I watch them
As I hide up here alone
Hungry for the ____ they show me
All my life, I memorize their faces
Knowing them as they will never know me
All my life, I ____
How it feels to pass a day
Not above them
But ____ of them
And out there
Living in the sun
Give me one day out there
All I ask is ____
To hold forever
Out there
Where they all live ____
What I'd give
What I'd dare
Just to live one day out there
Out there among the millers
And the weavers and their wives ____ the roofs and gables I can see them
Ev'ry day they shout and scold
And go about their lives
____ of the gift it is to be them
If I was in their skin
I'd treasure ev'ry ____
Out there
____ by the Seine
Taste a morning!
Out there
Like ordinary men
Who ____ walk about there
Just one day and then
I swear, I'll be content
With my share
Won't ____, won't despair
Old and bent, I won't ____
I'll have spent one day
Out ____!

Listen to the song TWICE and fill in the missing words.

The world is cruel
The world is wicked
It's I alone whom you can trust in this whole city
I am your only friend
I who keep you, teach you, feed you, dress you
I who look upon you without fear
How can I protect you, boy, unless you
Always stay in here
Away in here
You are deformed (I am deformed)
And you are ugly (And I am ugly)
And these are crimes
For which the world
Shows little pity
You do not comprehend
(You are my one defender)
Out there they'll revile you
As a monster
(I am a monster)
Out there they will hate
And scorn and jeer
(Only a monster)
Why invite their calumny
And consternation
Stay in here
Be faithful to me (I'm faithful)
Grateful to me (I'm grateful)
Do as I say
Obey
And stay
In here

Safe behind these windows
And these parapets of stone
Gazing at the people down below me
All my life I watch them
As I hide up here alone
Hungry for the histories they show me
All my life, I memorize their faces
Knowing them as they will never know me
All my life, I wonder
How it feels to pass a day
Not above them
But part of them

And out there
Living in the sun
Give me one day out there
All I ask is one
To hold forever
Out there
Where they all live unaware
What I'd give
What I'd dare
Just to live one day out there

Out there among the millers
And the weavers and their wives
Through the roofs and gables I can see them
Ev'ry day they shout and scold
And go about their lives
Heedless of the gift it is to be them
If I was in their skin
I'd treasure ev'ry instant

Out there
Strolling by the Seine
Taste a morning!
Out there
Like ordinary men
Who freely walk about there
Just one day and then
I swear, I'll be content
With my share
Won't resent, won't despair
Old and bent, I won't care
I'll have spent one day
Out there!

1. Do you think Frollo loves Quasimodo?
2. Why does Quasimodo not go outside even though he clearly longs to?
3. Quasimodo talks about 'the gift it is to be them'. What do you think he means?
4. What do you think 'deformed' means? Use the text to help you.
5. 'The world is cruel. The world is wicked.' What does Frollo say to Quasimodo to make him believe this?