

Read the text and answer the questions below.

Grandpa's house is a bit like Grandpa. It's so old and creaky, you see. Also, it's rather untidy in a Grandpa-like kind of way.

"My house reminds me of me," he always says.

It reminds us of Grandpa, too. No wonder we love to stay there. At least, we did till our visit last spring. That's when my big brother Adam started to wind us up.

"Look!" he exclaimed one tea time. "See those cobwebs, Ben?"

"Cobwebs?" I said.

Questions

1. What is Grandad's house like?

2. When was their last visit?

3. What did Adam point out?

4. What do the words 'old and creaky' tell us about the house?

5. What do cobwebs in the house tell us?
